Dear Murpin Josua Sembiring,

the manuscript ADOPTION OF NEW MOBILE PAYMENT TECHNOLOGY IN INDONESIA: THE ROLES OF ATTITUDE, submitted to Innovative Marketing Journal, needs to be revised.

Comments:

The author(s) should arrange the manuscript in accordance with the requirements of the Journal <https://businessperspectives.org/journals/innovative-marketing#submission-guidelines-for-authors>

The following types of manuscripts can be submitted to the journal:

- research paper, which is a final report on the finished original experimental study (the structure is Abstract, Introduction, Literature review, Method, Results, Discussion, Conclusion);
- theoretical paper, which is devoted to theoretical study of the problem, which complies with the journal's scope (the structure is Abstract, Introduction, Theoretical Basis, Results, Discussion, Conclusion);
- review paper, which is a study of concrete scientific problem, which complies with the journal's scope and is conducted based on the materials of the scientific publications (the structure is Abstract, Introduction, Literature review, generalization of the main statements, Discussion, Conclusion);

You need to determine the type of article, and this will determine its structure and presentation style. Familiarize yourself with what should be in a particular section and correctly distribute the material into sections. You should not add any other sections. Do not divide sections into small sections.

The number of words in the paper may vary from 4000 to 6000 (the information about the authors, title, abstract and keywords, list of references and appendices should not be included). Appendices no more than 5 pages.

Specify the title of the article (it should correlate for the purpose of the study). Clearly state the purpose of the study - one sentence and one goal.

The volume of the Abstract is 150-250 words. The abstract should be written as follows: relevance, purpose, method, results, conclusion. This is exactly the sequence it should be. Most of the abstract should be devoted to the result. Provide quantitative indicators of the results of the study.

Keywords should reflect the main idea and content of the article. It is desirable that they do not repeat the words from the article's title and really were mostly words, not phrases. The purpose of keywords is to provide the insight to the reader into the contents of the paper. They should reflect the area of the research. The number of keywords should be 5-10 in average. There should not be the sentences, but the words or word groups. If the object of the study is not mentioned in the title of the paper (including the country, the region), it should be added to the list of keywords. There is no need to replicate words from the title of the manuscript.

It is necessary to add JEL Classification codes (they should reflect the content of the article and be ambiguous; they must have a letter and a two-digit number). If earlier the author was not aware of this classification system, he/she should attentively look through it in order to have a common understanding of all the areas defined in it http://www.aeaweb.org/jel/jel_class_system.php. The codes, indicated by the author should clearly reflect the research area. The author is welcome to use the codes from two or three areas, if they are covered in the research.

The Introduction is devoted exclusively to the relevance of the research topic and the formulation of the problem in general (it should be reduced, it is 0,5-1 page of text). Do not turn it into a Literature review.

The literature review of the analyzed sources should be 40-50, and most should be relevant articles. The literary review also requires revision and logic of the material. This should be subordinated to the purpose of the study. After the Literary Review:

- 1) the aim of the study should be formulated (clearly and specifically),
- 2) then point out the hypotheses - if anticipate them -(all together and do not insert text between them)

Then go to the Methods section.

The Result section is the main section of the article. Then there should be a Discussion section. There should be a discussion of the study results, a comparison with previous ones, a discussion of why the authors have such results, the definition of prospects.

The conclusions are incorrect. There should be such a logic - indicate the purpose of the study, briefly demonstrate the result, indicate what conclusions should be drawn from it. The author(s) should not repeat sentences from conclusions in the abstract.

Dear Murpin Josua Sembiring,

the manuscript ADOPTION OF NEW MOBILE PAYMENT TECHNOLOGY IN INDONESIA: THE ROLES OF ATTITUDE, submitted to Innovative Marketing Journal, needs to be revised.

Comments:

- Once again, we kindly ask you to fulfill the previous comments and requirements for the manuscript.

This sentence should be deleted in the conclusions: "It is also recommended that researchers study the effects of other variables such as personal innovativeness, subjective norm, and self-efficacy, as suggested in the study of Shankar and Datta (2018)."

- Please download the document ""MA5689m4_MA5689m3_PLAGIARISM REPORT.pdf" (see right column File).

Our journal strictly observes the principles of publication ethics, including when talking about citing the works of other scientists and the works they published earlier. Any loanwords, including text loans (even insignificant), are unacceptable without mentioning their author.

We kindly ask you to pay attention to the widespread problem of wrong citation when Author A somehow gives (mentions, retells) the text fragment from the work (published by Author B), which contains the reference to other work (published by Author C).

In this case there are two options of correct citation:

- 1 – cite the work of Author B and note that he/she, in turn, cited the work of Author C;
- 2 – directly mention the work of Author C as well and cite it.

Do not forget that you can also use direct citations, that is why please use the quotation marks and when citing the source please note the page from which this quotation was taken.

You should be absolutely sure that you did not violate the principles of publication ethics. If there are at least small doubts that there can be loanwords in your text, we kindly ask you to check the manuscript for plagiarism by yourself using the special instruments (plagiarism detection software).
